NC MUSIC FACTORY

The North Carolina Music Factory will eventually evolve into a multi-use arts and entertainment district mixing restaurants, nightclubs and galleries with residential condominiums and office space. The mixed-use project will present a "Charleston Market" like feel, incorporating open courtyards, patios and indoor/outdoor stages. The historic Fourth Ward project required restoration of an early century cotton mill into new space offering original historic charm. Exposed brick walls and refinished hardwood floors are but a few of the features.
